Fallasburg Village Celebration Artisan Market

Saturday, July 27, 2024, 11am-5pm

The Fallasburg Historical Society invites you to join our 1 day Fallasburg Village Celebration. The event will be host to unique crafts, music, vintage cars/tractors and a wide variety of historical activities and demonstrations. When you cross the Historic Fallasburg Covered Bridge, you will be taking a step back in time. The Fallasburg Historical Society owns 5 historic buildings and over 20 acres in the village. The village also has several historic buildings that are private residences that add to the historic atmosphere. The village is a “Historical District” with the National Register of Historic Places.

Selection Procedure: The Artisan Market selection committee will ensure a diverse range of artisans whose work is of original quality and that represents a variety of creative styles for the Village Celebration.

Fallasburg Historical Society has a policy to provide equal opportunity to participate in and benefit from all programs, activities and services without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, age, sex or handicap.
